Team Sports include whiffle ball, floor hockey, kickball, obstacle course, basketball, soccer, battleball, touch football and Track and Field.

Campers rotate through a variety of activities, shifting every 30 minutes enabling campers to learn skills such as: throwing, dribbling, kicking, batting, shooting, catching, quickness, and agility.

STAFF AND COUNSELORS:

Camp Directors David Ligon and Mike Kelly have a combined total of 69 years experience in teaching and coaching boys. They have been involved with athletes at both the high school and college level.

Camp Counselors are high school and college young men who work under the supervision of the Directors. These boys are chosen for their character and ability to work with and teach others.
